Hello, Mr. Alexander – good morning. I hope this finds you well.

In further response to PRA 020-107, attached hereto is the next in the rolling series of productions responsive to the request for records related Advanced Bioscience Resources. These documents are a reproduction of the original record with redactions. Redactions have been applied to unpublished fax and email address information. I estimate the next production of records related to Advanced Bioscience Resources on or before Friday 7/16/21.

Please note that this reply is in addition to the next production of log information estimated for production on or before Friday 7/9/21.

Thank you - kind regards,
